Practice drawing from observation by selecting related objects, for example from the kitchen cupboard, or recording things around where you live by venturing outside.

Take photos to work from that could go into your pages too if you are drawing outside.

Try following Tom Quigly's approach to drawing and building up the body of work. Use his approach but select objects that connect to your current project.

This tutorial will build your confidence with drawing from observation and go towards your GCSE grade.

Make sure the work is in your coursework portfolio/sketchbook.
